2015-2016 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Accreditation

- PDEP became the national accrediting body for dietetics education programs, formally approved by all Canadian dietetic regulatory bodies.
- A contract service agreement with Dietitians of Canada for accreditation program management was finalized. Suzanne Daneault was appointed Program Manager, a role that supports accreditation program and Council operations.
- Funding for the accreditation program is shared equally by the 3 PDEP Sectors.
- PDEP Accreditation Council formed as an autonomous accreditation decision making body which oversees the operational management of the accreditation program and determines program accreditation awards. It operates at an arms-length relationship from the PDEP Steering Committee (SC).
- The Accreditation Council includes eight individuals from the following groups: Dietetic Educators (4), Dietitians of Canada (1), Regulatory (1), Recent Graduate (1), and Public (1). Members of the new PDEP Accreditation Council were recruited through a national call to all official PDEP partner sector members. The SC undertook a rigorous applicant screening, assessment and decision making process for the appointment of the first Council. Council members are: Theresa Glanville, Marielle LeDoux, Sandra Phillips, Helen Tomalik, Cathy Paroschy Harris, Carolyn Lordon, Jessica Rutherford, and Bruce Holmes. A Council orientation session was held in Fall 2015.
- Three accreditation site visits (5 program reviews) occurred in 2015 and three site visits (4 program reviews) occurred in winter/spring 2016 under the mandate of the new Accreditation Council.

Governance and Operations

- Governance and Operational Policies were prepared and feedback sought from all PDEP sector members. The SC has approved the policies, which are now posted on the PDEP website.
- An updated work plan was developed by the SC facilitated by consultant Wayne Marsh. The work plan incorporates maintenance of Integrated Competencies for Dietetic Education and Practice (ICDEP); transition of Accreditation; and effective Partnership Operations.

Administration

- Significant planning was undertaken for an enhanced PDEP website improved navigation and document library, and will include an extensive section on Accreditation tools and resources.
